Does anyone know what the trophies are for or any of the Sailors names? The three Marines are: kneeling left to right, Bob Harper, Terry Mueller, and standing is Bob Grebas. Click on the picture for a large version. If you have any more information about this photo, email it to admin@ussgalveston.org brank: Al Curtice, FTM2 - '65 to '69, Missile Div. responded with: The trophies, on reading them, appears to be a "Trap Shooting" prizes. GMM2 in front row center is shipmate R. Higgins. He was in the '67 cruise book. The Captain in the pic, I don't remember. The Sailor in front of the flagpole, back row, could be Ralph Batson. I'm going to say the yard cranes appear to be in Philly Naval Shipyard. OJ Franklin FTM2 63-64,66 wrote: The sailor kneeling next to the Marine (with 3 small plaques) looks like "Dirty Jake" Jacoby who was in FM division in the 63-66 timeframe. The guy immediately behind him with a large and small plaque was also in FM division at that time. I think both worked on the AN/SPG-49 Radar of the Talos system, maybe Ivan Lund could do a better job of identifying them.

What a wonderful speech it was and I am so glad to be able to hear it again and I applaud Keith and Bob for posting it, "Thanks guys". I kind of wished that there were more pictures of the people who attended but still it was a great job and I would urge everyone to listen to it.
