I think that correspondence or e-mail from shipmates who remember being on the Song Thu Bon would help.THANKS

Web Admin: Bob has sent us photocopies of 20 pages of the Galveston deck log he acquired from the navy archives. The dates covered are 14 - 23 Nov 68. We will be posting the scanned images for all to see very soon.
437)   Bob Grant idrgrant@cableone.net Rating/Rank & Years aboard the Gal: GM3	📧 Friday, February 25, 2011 19:21 IP: 67-60-58-214.cpe.cableone.net   There is a picture in 68-69 cruise book that shows us firing about 20 miles south of da nang just off the mouth of the Song Thu Bon River. Does anyone remember where that information came from that was written on the cruise book page. There is no mention of this in the Deck Logs. THANKS
436)   AL CURTICE wacurtice@yahoo.com Rating/Rank & Years aboard the Gal: FTMSN to FTM2, '65 to '69	📧 Monday, February 21, 2011 16:23 IP: 74-50-201-192.rainierconnect.com   Remembering WesPacs: The GAL did not carry a Helo during these deployments, reference: no listing in cruse books. When deployed to the Med with Hueys being assigned after the GAL reached the Med. The Helos used during the Vietnam periods were stationed onboard the closest Carrier.
435)   Keith Hedley keith@ussgalveston.org Rating/Rank & Years aboard the Gal: RD2/'66-'69	📧 Monday, February 21, 2011 02:55 Host: c-24-4-180-195.hsd1.ca.comcast.net   Destroyer history time... The only USS Burke was a WWII DE and was mothballed in '49, scrapped in '68. Of course, there is the new USS Arleigh Burke, but obviously not a Vietnam era boat. As for the Brook, yes there was the USS Brooke DEG-1 active on the west coast in the 60's and 70's. Now the helo question... didn't our own helo make the flight? And Soupy... only two DDs served off of Vietnam?? From my own experience on a DD deployed to WestPac in '69 (after the Gal) I remember the place was filthy with tin cans. In fact we travelled in packs (destroyer squadrons) of four everywhere. But just to be sure I did some research on the Navy Historical Center website and found that on average between '66 and '70 there were 30 DD's in the western Pacific at any given time. UPDATE Found out from Soupy that he meant there were only 2 DD's that started with a "B" and operated with the Gal. So... never mind!
434)   Al Curtice wacurtice@yahoo.com Rating/Rank & Years aboard the Gal: FTM2 65-69	📧 Sunday, February 20, 2011 13:37 IP: 74-50-201-192.rainierconnect.com   One of the Destroyers we went over with in Oct '68 was the Brook or the Burke, don't remember which or the #'s.
433)   bob murrin bmurrin@yahoo.com Rating/Rank & Years aboard the Gal: cyn-3, sn	📧 Saturday, February 19, 2011 12:31 IP: 244-7.96-97.tampabay.res.rr.com   Does anyone remember what destroyer we served with off of N. Vietnam, late 1968 through Xmas, 1968. She sent a helo to us when I was flown to the Ranger off Yankee Station when my appendix burst.23 Dec 1968. Soupy Campbell: In checking HullNumber.com there are only two (02) Destroyers that were in Nam as follows: BUKLEY DD-808-65,66,68, 70, 71 and 72 and the USS BUCK 761- 67. So apparently it had to be the USS BUCKLEY DD-808 Bob.
